

Summer Studies in Scotland 2015

July 23 – August 6, 2016

Application Deadline: February 22, 2016

Experience an unforgettable summer in Scotland -- studying abroad with Humber's globally-minded partner school, Robert Gordon University! In this unique program, you will work in diverse multinational teams to generate innovative entrepreneurial business ideas, all while taking in the culture, social activities, and magnificent scenery that both Aberdeen and Scotland have to offer.

Week one of the program will be delivered at the state-of-the-art Aberdeen Business School, one of the leading Business Schools in Scotland. In addition to attending lectures and working on case-studies facilitated by faculty of Robert Gordon University, you will tour historic sights and renowned local and multinational businesses. Week two of the program will move you to "The Burn", a beautiful country estate located outside of the city, where you will relax and work with your teams to create a 15-minute pitch of an idea for your own business. A panel of judges will give feedback on the final day of the program (as in "Dragon's Den"!)

Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the summer program, you will be able to:

1. Apply creative thinking skills and use of innovative techniques to explore extended problem solving.
2. Evaluate and research an entrepreneurial idea.
3. Determine and analyze opportunities encountered by new enterprise starts within the European environment.
4. Critically appraise the nature of the entrepreneurial personality in the context of relevant academic models and theories.
5. Examine the impact of intercultural competencies on team working.
6. Develop skills needed to prepare for and participate in an international learning experience, including research, organization, risk management, teamwork, interpersonal communication and culture competence and sensitivity.

Program Fee: £950 per person, paid directly to Robert Gordon University*

Included:

- Successful completion of this program is the equivalent of 1.0 lower level degree breadth elective credit from the Business School. Must be approved in advance by your Program Coordinator. Summer tuition fees are waived at Humber, and normal tuition will be due for the Fall 2016 semester
